Antelope (Herd Animals)

This category includes most wild, grazing creatures such as deer, wild oxen, moose, elk, goats, and caribou. At least one species will be encountered in any given climate. The number of hit dice the creature has and the amount of damage it does depends on its size. Deer, antelope, and goats typically have 1 or 2 hit dice; caribou and oxen have 3 hit dice, while elk and moose may have up to 4. Only males have a butt attack. If more than 2 creatures are encountered, there will be 1 male per 4 creatures, with the remainder being females and young. The young will have 1/2 the hit points normal, but the males will have 1-4 extra hit points. Females and young will flee from trouble while the male protects them.

Basilisk

|              |                             |                |            |

| Armor Class: | 4                           | No. Appearing: | 1-6 (1-6)  |

| Attacks:     | 1 bite + gaze               | Treasure Type: | F          |
| Damage:      | 1-10 points + petrification | Alignment:     | Neutral    |

A basilisk is a 10' long, sinuous magical lizard that is non-intelligent. It lives in underground caverns or wild and tangled thickets. Creatures touched by a basilisk, or meeting its gaze, must make a saving throw vs. Turn to Stone or be petrified (including all the character wears and holds). Surprised characters automatically meet the gaze of a basilisk. Characters in hand-to-hand combat with a basilisk meet its glance each round unless looking away. Characters looking away to avoid the gaze of a basilisk must fight it with a penalty of -4 on their "to hit" rolls, while the basilisk attacks at +2. The beast can be safely viewed in a mirror, and characters who fight it while looking into a mirror will only have a -1 penalty on their "to hit" rolls. If the basilisk sees itself in a mirror (a 1d6 roll of 1 or 2), it must make a saving throw or be turned to stone! There must be light close by for mirrors to be used, and using a mirror prevents the effective use of a shield.

Black Pudding***

|              |           |                |            |
|--------------|-----------|----------------|------------|
| Armor Class: | 6         | No. Appearing: | 1 (0)      |
| Hit Dice:    | 10*       | Save As:       | Fighter: 5 |
| Move:        | 60' (20') | Morale:        | 12         |
| Attacks:     | 1         | Treasure Type: | Nil        |
| Damage:      | 3-24      | Alignment:     | Neutral    |

A black pudding is a black amorphous blob 5-30 feet in diameter. It is non-intelligent and constantly hungry. It can dissolve wood and corrode metal in one turn, but cannot affect stone. Black puddings can travel on ceilings and walls and can pass through small openings. They can be killed only by fire; other attacks (weapons or spells) only break them up into smaller puddings (a 2 hit dice pudding that does 1-8 points of damage is created per blow). A flaming sword will do normal damage.

Blink Dog

|              |            |                |            |
|--------------|------------|----------------|------------|
| Armor Class: | 5          | No. Appearing: | 1-6 (1-6)  |
| Hit Dice:    | 4*         | Save As:       | Fighter: 4 |
| Move:        | 120' (40') | Morale:        | 6          |
| Attacks:     | 1 bite     | Treasure Type: | C          |
| Damage:      | 1-6        | Alignment:     | Lawful     |

Blink dogs look like Australian wild dogs. They are highly intelligent, travel in packs, and use a limited teleportation ability: they can "blink out" of one spot and immediately appear ("blink in") at another. When attacking, they "blink" close to an enemy, attack, and then reappear 10 to 40 feet away. On any round in which they have the initiative, they can attack without risking a counterattack by the defender, by "blinking" away. Their instincts prevent blink dogs from "blinking" into solid objects. If seriously threatened, an entire pack will "blink" out and not reappear. Blink dogs always attack displacer beasts, their natural enemies.

Caecilia

|              |           |                |            |
|--------------|-----------|----------------|------------|
| Armor Class: | 6         | No. Appearing: | 1-3 (1-3)  |
| Hit Dice:    | 6*        | Save As:       | Fighter: 3 |
| Move:        | 60' (20') | Morale:        | 9          |
| Attacks:     | 1 bite    | Treasure Type: | B          |
| Damage:      | 1-8       | Alignment:     | Neutral    |

These giant gray wormlike creatures are about 30' long. They attack with their cavernous mouths and sharp teeth. An unadjusted "to hit" roll of 19 or 20 means that they have swallowed their prey whole. The victim will take 1-8 points of damage each round after that until either the victim or the caecilia is dead. Any attack from inside a caecilia may only be made with a dagger, and with a penalty of -4 on "to hit" rolls.

Camel

|              |               |                |            |
|--------------|---------------|----------------|------------|
| Armor Class: | 7             | No. Appearing: | 0 (2-8)    |
| Hit Dice:    | 2             | Save As:       | Fighter: 1 |
| Move:        | 150' (50')    | Morale:        | 7          |
| Attacks:     | 1 bite/1 hoof | Treasure Type: | Nil        |
| Damage:      | 1/1-4         | Alignment:     | Neutral    |

Camels are ill-tempered beasts, prone to biting and kicking any creature that gets in their way, including their masters. They often kick with one leg. They are used as pack and riding animals in deserts and barren lands, treating these as clear terrain. A camel may carry up to 3000 coins of weight and still move at normal speed, but the maximum load that can be carried is 6000 coins. A well-watered camel may travel for 2 weeks without drinking. Charge attacks with a lance from camelback are not possible.
