Efreets are free-willed fire elementals. These beings usually appear as clouds of smoke that solidify into giant-sized demonic-faced men surrounded by flames. The air around them is always hot and smoky. Efreets are highly magical in nature and save as 15th level fighters. They can only be hit with magic weapons.

Efreets can create objects, create illusions, and turn invisible like djinn. They are also able to create a wall of fire up to 3 times per day. An efreeti may transform its body into a pillar of flame that will set fire to all flammable items within 5 feet. They can retain the flame shape for 3 rounds maximum. The fire will also do an additional 1-8 points of damage to all creatures struck by the efreet. They may fly and carry up to 10,000 lb weight while flying.

Efreets can be summoned by high level magic-users who have researched the special spells required. Once summoned, Efreets can be forced to serve for 101 days. They are reluctant and difficult servants and will obey their instructions exactly, attempting to distort the meaning of whatever they have been told to do in order to cause trouble for their masters. Efreets hate Djinn and will attack them on sight.

Elementals can be brought forth only from a large amount of their element (open air, bare earth or rock, large fire, large pond). After being summoned they must be totally controlled at all times by the person who summoned them. Control requires complete concentration. If the summoner moves over half speed, takes damage in combat or does anything besides paying attention to the elemental, the elemental will turn and attempt to attack its summoner. It will also attack any creature in the path between it and the one who summoned it. Once control is lost, it can never be regained. An elemental vanishes when dispelled, when the elemental is slain, or when the summoner orders the elemental to return from whence it came while it is still under control. Elementals can be hit only by magic or magic weapons.

Staff elementals (the weakest) are summoned by a magic-user with a special staff. Device elementals are summoned with the use of a special miscellaneous magic item. Conjured elementals are summoned by the use of the 5th level magic-user/elf spell.

Staff	2	8	1-8	Fighter: 8
Device	0	12	2-16	Fighter: 12
Conjured	-2	16	3-24	Fighter: 16

Air elementals appear as great whirlwinds 2' tall and 1/2' in diameter for each hit die they have (a staff elemental would be 16' tall and 4' across). The whirlwind will catch and sweep away creatures of less than 2 hit dice, unless a saving throw vs. Death Ray is made. Air elementals will do an extra 1-8 points of damage against flying opponents.

Earth elementals appear as huge man-like figures 1' tall for each hit die they have (thus a conjured elemental would be 16' tall). Earth elementals cannot cross a water barrier wider than their height. Earth elementals do an extra 1-8 points of damage against opponents on the ground.

Fire elementals appear as swirling pillars of roaring flame 1' tall and 1' in diameter for each hit die they have; a device elemental would be 12' tall and 12' across. They cannot cross a water barrier wider than their own diameter. They do an additional 1-8 points of damage against all creatures with cold-based attacks.

Water elementals appear as great waves of water 1/2' tall and 2' in diameter for each hit die they have (a staff elemental will be 4' tall and 16' across). Water elementals are not able to move more than 60' from water. They do an extra 1-8 points of damage against opponents in water.

Elephant

Hit Dice:	9	Save As:	Fighter: 5
Move:	120' (40')	Morale:	8
Attacks:	2 tusks or 1 trample	Treasure Type:	(see below)

Any number of elephants from a lone rogue to an entire herd may be encountered. Both males and females have tusks.

In combat, elephants will first charge, striking with their tusks for double damage. In succeeding combat rounds, they will either strike with their tusks (25%) or trample (75%). If the opponent is man-sized or smaller, the elephant receives a bonus of +4 on "to hit" rolls when trampling.

Elephants dwell at the edge of sub-tropical forest areas. Their tusks are valued for the ivory and may be sold for 100-600 gp each.
